

Page No	Title	Page No	Title
1	Judicial panel to probe Manipur violence: Shah	7	Judicial panel to probe violence in Manipur: Shah
1	GST collections cross ₹1.5 lakh cr. for the fifth time, up 11.5% in May	7	Will settle boundary issue, take our ties to Himalayan heights: PM meets Prachanda
6	The big, booming business of child bride trafficking in Gujarat	7	Manufacturing PMI hits 31-month high in May, riding demand surge
8	Wrestling for justice	16	STAY THE COURSE
8	Riding momentum	16	Big picture is bright
8	At the root of India's manufacturing challenge	16	A FOCUS ON COMMON INTERESTS
8	Central Asian foreign policy multi-vectorism pays off	18	'Security no longer regional...what happens in Asia matters for Europe'
10	Who should own the world's lithium?	18	Amit Shah's Mission Manipur involved restoring trust in govt, placating Kukis
12	India, Nepal sign pacts on energy, transport	18	In 3 yrs, Govt gave 46 lakh loan to street vendors; about 40% repaid: ministry data
12	Jaishankar calls for UNSC reforms at BRICS meet	20	For the cool summer so far, thank the frequent spells of rain
12	India-Russia joint venture on Vande Bharat trains hits hurdle	20	BRICS that could be bigger
13	India and China hold talks on LAC issue in New Delhi	20	GDP growth estimated to cross 7%, what's in store for the markets?
13	China warns of counter-measures on journalist visas	23	GST collections see 11.5% rise in May
14	Sedition law can be retained but with safeguards: Law Commission	23	India's Russian oil purchases at fresh high in May
14	'Half of electricity to be from renewable sources by 2027'	23	As liquidity improves and inflation falls, deposit rates to stay steady
16	May's manufacturing PMI scales a 31-month high: S&P Global survey	23	Key reforms have transformed India in last decade, says Morgan Stanley report
16	RBI should adopt neutral policy stance as inflation cools: CII's Dinesh

'If you wish to soar high shed the baggage that weighs you down and constantly look for the opposing wind.'

DR. KHAN